A Word from Our Pastor

But you, O Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, you descendants of Abraham my friend, I took you from the ends of the earth... I have chosen you and have not rejected you. Is 41: 8-9

Have you ever paused to consider the idea that, like Israel, the Lord of the universe is your friend? That's something that'll stop you in your tracks by the sheer magnitude and awe of it!

God chooses his friends on his own terms. The "rich and famous," the intellectuals, the powerful people of this world aren't guaranteed a place on his list, but some of the most unexpected folks are! Our Lord doesn't look at worldly greatness; instead, his own sense of mercy is the deciding factor. That's something we'll not likely ever understand.

We experience many blessings that flow from our friendship with God, but there are also difficult challenges. He expects a lot from us, but he also gives much. Being a friend of Jesus means that we can be identified by the choices we make, the sacrifices we make, and the mercy we show - even in the face of persecution. We're likely to suffer for his sake, physically and spiritually, and it's not a covenant that we make lightly.

When God chooses a friend, it's forever. He never gives up on us or grows tired of our offenses. He lends his strength, and his companionship is a source of comfort and peace as we travel life's journey. He devotes himself to us wholly, for this lifetime, and for the next. To be called a friend of God by God is too magnificent, too awesome to consider, and a blessing afforded us in the love of Jesus Christ.

With prayers of thanksgiving for you, dear friends, and for the friend we have in Jesus,

Rev. Lisa

Preview of Carpet Samples

Larger carpet samples will be on display in the Chat Room this Sunday. The Administrative Board voted Tuesday night to approve the expenditure, and once a final choice is made, the installation will begin. This project is one of our 10 projects commemorating LRFF's 10th anniversary and will be a bright and refreshing improvement to the building.

Wildcards: Fun and Creativity!

The next Wildcards gathering will be Tuesday, August 11 at 9:30. Come join us for a morning of fun, creativity, shared ideas, and surprises. Everyone is welcome – bring a friend!

Dine Local at Ramsey's Wednesday, Aug. 12

Our next Dine Local is scheduled for 11:30 at Ramsey's in Masterson Station. (No waiting!) We all have our favorite items on the Ramsey's' menu, but there are always fresh, locally sourced garden vegetables featured during the summer months. Invite a friend to join us around the table and sign up to let us know you'll be there!

July Birthdays

Time Capsule Contributions

Thanks to those of you who've made suggestions and brought in items for our time capsule. The capsule has been ordered and, after it is filled, will be buried near one of the newly planted trees beside Kearns Hall. If you have photos or other memorabilia you want to offer, please let Rev. Lisa know.
