From Our Pastor

You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. People do not light a lamp and put it under a bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. Matthew 5:14-16

An interviewer once asked Anne Lamott, "Why do you make your teenage son, Sam, go to church?"

Lamott answered in her usual, candid way. "I make him go because I CAN! I outweigh him by 75 pounds! But that's only part of it. The main reason I insist he go to church is that I want to give him some of what I've found from gathering with a worshiping community - a path - and a little light to see by."

So, I wonder... why do you come to church? It means you must set your alarm, get up and get moving - perhaps a little earlier than you're used to. It means you clean up, and dress up, and get on the road. Sometimes the sun is in your eyes. Other times, a deluge of rain blurs your vision, even with your windshield wipers on "high." What motivates you to come to church each Sunday morning?

I believe that we enjoy gathering as a worshiping kindred in faith - and I am including those of our members who are faithful in joining with us online. We find purpose, balance, joy, consolation, sustaining strength, and gratitude in being a part of this fellowship. We pray together as people of community. We participate in the work of the Kingdom of God. In the practice of gathering ourselves together in worship, we are cheered and warmed by the Light of Christ. The Light within us, when held out for others, provides a beacon of cheer and hope as they travel their own path.

Praying your path - and your purpose - is illumined in the Light of the world this week.

Dine Local at The Ketch, Wednesday, Nov. 4

We hope you'll join us at The Ketch for our November Dine Local on Wednesday, Nov. 4 at 11:30 A.M. In addition to their gracious hospitality, they're known as one of Lexington's finest seafood restaurants. The menu is on the bulletin board, right beside the sign-up sheet. Sign up and bring a friend.

Pecans Are Coming!

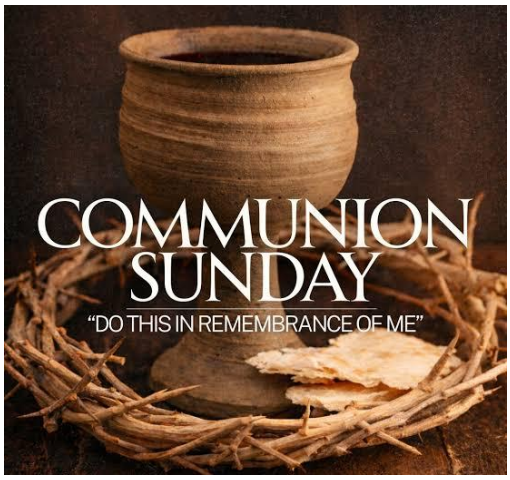

Our Women of Faith will be selling pecans again this year. Along with the familiar assortment, we will also have bags of pecan chips available - perfect for holiday baking. We expect the shipment to arrive late next week, and a sheet is on the bulletin board so you can place your order. Each bag is priced at $13. Our Women of Faith rely on this fundraiser and generously support many of our mission and building projects with each year's proceeds, so please help make this a record year for sales.

Communion is THIS Sunday

A few years ago, a nationwide poll asked, "What word or phrase would you most like to hear uttered to you, sincerely?" Can you guess the first thing people wanted to hear? You're right: "I love you." The second was, "You are forgiven." Number three, believe it or not, was, "Supper is ready." If it's been a while since you've heard those words directed at you, join us this Sunday for Holy Communion. You'll hear those three little words: God's unconditional love (I love you), You are forgiven (God's unmerited grace), and Supper is ready (God's unsurpassed invitation). Hope to see you Sunday. There's always room at the table of the Host.

Faith Family Thanksgiving Dinner on Sunday, Nov. 22

Our annual Thanksgiving Dinner will follow our worship service on Sunday, Nov. 22, in Kearns Hall. We will be serving the traditional Thanksgiving fare consisting of turkey and gravy, dressing, cranberry salad, green beans, and potatoes. Some of our ladies will be providing homemade desserts. Feel free to invite your friends, but please sign up on the bulletin board so we'll know how much food to provide.

What a beautiful morning of worship this past Sunday! We were blessed by a moving arrangement of "You Raise Me Up" from Pam on flute and Lydia at the piano, and John leading us through the litany and Scripture. Thank you all for sharing your gifts!
