A Word from Our Pastor

Praise to the Lord, who will prosper your work and defend you;
surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend you.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do as with his love he befriend you.
(from our Celebration Hymnal, page 210)

Nothing about the world changes when we begin to sing. The "...wars and rumors of wars" are still there; the unanswered prayers may appear to be "on hold;" our hearts may still be aching, and tomorrow may still feel uncertain, but in singing our praises to God, the way we see things begins to change.

Over the past week, I've had opportunities to notice God's presence in places I might never have noticed otherwise. I was singing this hymn to myself while driving and was detoured on my way home last week. While stopped at a light, I noticed this sign on the side of a building near downtown. The words to the hymn, "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty," came alive and became my conscious prayer. While singing, "...Surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend you," it was as though God whispered, "It will be ok." As I sang, "...with his love he befriend you," I felt the Holy Spirit say, "You will be ok."

Sometimes, in our distress, in our weariness, in the burdens we carry, our vision can become rather distorted. We fail to see what we're truly looking for and miss the signs all around us, reminding us that we are being "attended" by the Spirit of the Risen Christ. We receive his mercy and grace one day at a time and that is sufficient to supply our needs. The hymns we sing on Sundays come to our minds, "...grant(ing) us wisdom, grant(ing) us courage for the living of these days." The words remind us that that "...we can face uncertain days because He lives."

Perhaps that's why the church sings. Not because life is suddenly easy. Our hymns of praise open our eyes to God who has been faithful all along. And once we've remembered, we find ourselves walking into a new week with a little more hope, a little more trust, and a heart that joyfully anticipates encountering the presence of Christ in the ordinary and extraordinary moments.

Keep singing the songs of faith with your eyes wide open. You'll find yourself lost in praise and "glad adoration."

Nominations for Administrative Board & Officers

Attached to this Current is a nomination form for nominating members and officers for the Administrative Board. Per the recent Church By-Laws revision, members elected by the church to serve on the Board will serve for two consecutive years. The Board Chairperson and Church Treasurer will serve a one-year term. (The Church Treasurer may also serve in that role while serving as a member on the Administrative Board.)

The Nominating Team will collect nominations and present a list of candidates to the Administrative Board at the October board meeting. For this reason, it is important that your nomination forms are received in the church office before Oct. 11. If you have any questions about the nomination process, please contact Rev. Lisa, Bill Greisner, or Liz Peters.

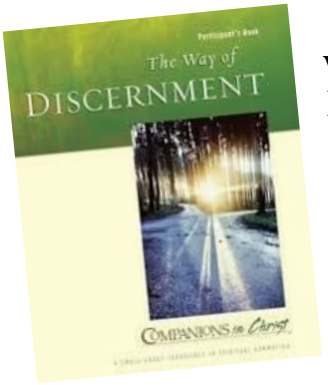

October Dine Local at Evans Orchard

We enjoyed our visit to Evans Orchard in Georgetown so much last year that we want to go back! We'll meet at the orchard at 11:30 on Wednesday, Oct. 14 and enjoy lunch on the picnic tables under the pavilion. A menu and sign-up sheet are on the bulletin board.

Companions in Christ: The Way of Discernment

Companions in Christ will finally resume Monday, Sept. 21, at 10:00. Some of our books are in and we expect the rest by the end of the week. Even if you've never experienced a Companions book study before, you are welcome to begin this study with us.

This theme invites participants to contemplate the ways God moves in his people and how we perceive his leadership - individually and corporately. This is a 10-week series and participants are encouraged to bring journals to each session. A sign-up sheet is on the board. Books are $12 each.

Every good gift begins with God. The lives
