A Word from Our Pastor

IMMENSELY good and honorable is the Eternal; that's why He teaches sinners the way. With JUSTICE, he directs the humble in all that is right, and He shows them His way. KIND and true are all the ways of the Eternal to the people who keep His covenant and His words. Psalm 25: 8-10 (from The Voice)

I hope you will take a moment and turn in your Bible to the 25th Psalm and read it in its entirety. It becomes evident that the Psalmist is anxious and stressed... but not despairing. I read these words as a beautiful, honest conversational prayer that encompasses praise, petition for guidance, forgiveness, and faith in God's unfailing love. After enumerating his fears and frustrations, King David seeks refuge in God's protection - not only for himself, but for Israel. Throughout the chapter, the words reflect the psalmist's perception of God as just, guarding and guiding, forgiving, and faithful in his steadfast love.

I wonder how many of us, when reading and meditating on these verses, can relate to experiencing the same feelings of the shepherd-king. He knew fear - with good reason. He felt remorse for his past sins - who doesn't? He sought truth and guidance - don't we all? Yet, amidst the pleading and confessing, fearing and stressing, our Psalmist breaks into praise and adoration.

This song-prayer reminds me of words in a stanza of one of our Hymns of Prayer, Dear Lord and Father of Mankind. Here's the verse:

...take from our souls the strain and stress
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of thy peace.

If you find yourself feeling the "strain and stress" of just living life right now, I pray that you will pause to be still before the Lord in honest prayer. May you truly sense the beauty of (his) peace.

Nominations for Administrative Board & Officers

Attached to this Current is a nomination form for nominating members and officers for the Administrative Board. Per the recent Church By-Laws revision, members elected by the church to serve on the Board will serve for two consecutive years. The Board Chairperson and Church Treasurer will serve a one-year term. (The Church Treasurer may also serve in that role while serving as a member on the Administrative Board.)

The Nominating Team will collect nominations and present a list of candidates to the Administrative Board at the October board meeting. For this reason, it is important that your nomination forms are received in the church office before Oct. 11. If you have any questions about the nomination process, please contact Rev. Lisa, Bill Greisner, or Liz Peters.

October Dine Local Wednesday, October 14

Evans Orchard in Georgetown is a 5th generation family farm that continues to flourish. Plan to either meet us at the orchard at 11:30 or join a group at church at 11:00 to carpool. We'll have lunch from the Sweet Apple Café and table fellowship outside under the pavilion. You may choose to wander the grounds, pick your own apples, choose a pumpkin, beautiful mum, or peruse the gift shop. (Apple slushies and apple cider donuts are a "must-try!") A menu and sign-up sheet are on the bulletin board.
